Case Study: The Baker's Son

- New Brand - The Baker's Son by Valerio's is unknown and this will be the first store opening
- Image - Valerio's bakeries are simple, small, community located stores with a feel of the "neighborhood bakery in the Philippines"
- Customers - Valerio's bakeries are mostly popular among the 1st gen Filipinos. This new brand/store targets multi-generational Filipino-Americans, plus the mainstream market.
- Geography - The family has never set up stores outside the US West Coast

JCBSM and Our Partners Went to Work

Case Study: The Baker's Son

- Crafted a Communications Plan that evolved the look and feel of TBS' image and new store to make it vibrant, modern and inviting to the multi-generations of Fil-Ams and the mainstream market.
- Developed creative materials that embodied TBS' freshly made products as high quality, delightful, affordable and familiar, yet it's new and relatable. It's tradition with a twist!
- Implemented a targeted, multi-platform and unconventional Media campaign (TV, Digital/Social Media, Billboards, Direct Mail, Print) that made TBS the go-to place in Florida for freshly-baked Filipino pastries and delicacies.

TRADITION with a TWIST

Case Study: The Baker's Son

- Overwhelming acceptance and high volume sales (literally off the shelves) which lasted for 3 weeks; demand of products only experienced and equaled when Jollibee (an extremely popular Filipino restaurant) opens a store in the US
 - Filipino-Americans were proud and honored that a store of this caliber was opened in their area
 - Customers up to 250 miles away made the travel
 - Long lines (several hours waiting time)
- Buzz (specially in social media) among a huge number of customers that influenced non-Filipinos to try it out
- Expansion plans
